YOUR IIN COORDINATORS ARE YOUR GO-TO CONTACT.

An IIN coordinator is a skilled and trained resource who can:

Build an innovative work-based learning experience

Your IIN coordinator can assist with building an innovative event specifically for your business or organization. IIN coordinators understand the unique needs of students and educational framework and can build something custom-tailored to your needs.

Plug you into an existing work-based learning experience

With state-wide, regional, and local experiences, your IIN coordinator can find the perfect fit for you. With job shadows, career immersion experiences, professional skill workshops, internships, and state-wide digital events, there is something you can get involved in today.

Direct you to the right person

If IIN doesn't provide what you are looking for, we can still connect you with the right person. IIN coordinators are highly connected with educators, state and regional organizations, and business partners and can point you in the right direction.
