

No Stethoscope Required

Discover how every role fits in the puzzle of health care.

Event Components:

This prerecorded event explores various non patient facing careers in healthcare and the education & training required to secure a career in the industry.

Service Area:

Health & Human Services

Audience:

Iowa Students

State Standards Covered:

- 4.3.2 Compare careers within the health science career pathways (diagnostic services, therapeutic services, health informatics, support services, or biotechnology research and development).

Example Assessments:

Please see attached Example Assessment

For Educators & Students:

Pre-Event Questions to Consider

- What types of non-patient facing roles exist in healthcare?
- What are the benefits of working in non-patient facing roles in healthcare?
- What are some considerations when pursuing a career in healthcare?
- Do non-patient facing careers require previous healthcare experience?

Post-Event Questions to Consider

- What are the advantages of working in a non-patient facing role in health care?
- What is the career outlook for non-patient facing healthcare careers?
- What education and training is necessary for these roles?
- If a student is interested in a non-patient facing role, what are their next steps?