

Moving Iowa: On the Road

“Drive” into the opportunities available to make big money in the transportation, distribution, and logistics industry.

Event Components:

This prerecorded event has a focus on the high demand industry of transportation, distribution, and logistics. Learn about the training and education needed to join the field, in addition to discovering the high wage jobs available!

Service Area:

Applied Sciences

Audience:

Iowa Students

State Standards Covered:

- U-2.3 - Analyze opportunities for employment and entrepreneurial endeavors.
- U-3.1 - Analyze the impact of the industry on local, state, national and global economies.
- U-3.3 - Identify how the industry and related technology impacts individuals, society, and the environment.

For Educators & Students

Pre-Event Questions to Consider

- What tasks do you think a commercial driver completes on a daily basis?
- What are some considerations when choosing a career in transportation, distribution and logistics?

Post-Event Questions to Consider

- How has technology changed the workflow in this industry?
- What is the job outlook for commercial drivers?
- What education/training is necessary for this career? What can a student interested in this career do while still in high school to prepare for this career?