

When disaster strikes: Crisis Management

Listen to professionals in emergency management on how to develop a plan to get back on track.

Event Components:

This prerecorded event takes a look into various emergency management systems and how they prepare for manmade or natural disasters. Explore the assistance provided and the jobs available in the industry.

Service Area:

Health & Human Services

Audience:

Iowa Students

State Standards Covered:

- 7.5 Emergency Procedures and Protocols
- 7.5.2 Apply principles of basic emergency response in natural disasters and other emergencies.
- 8.2.4 Evaluate why teamwork is an important part of healthcare and how it improves patient Care.

For Educators & Students:

Pre-Event Questions to Consider

- How do emergency management professionals begin planning for manmade or natural disasters?
- What types of assistance do emergency management professionals provide during emergencies?
- What types of jobs or roles exist in emergency management? How do these roles work together?

Post-Event Questions to Consider

- What traits or skills should an emergency management professional possess to be successful?
- If a student is interested in pursuing a career in emergency management, what are their next steps?