

C.A.S.E. - Counseling About Substance Education

From D.A.R.E to care - a dive into careers in substance abuse counseling and the services provided.

Event Date & Time:

Wednesday, October 27th, 2021

1:00 PM - 1:45 PM

Event Components:

This live event explores the day to day life of a substance abuse counselor. During this event, industry professionals will give an insight on the different types of counseling services provided, as well as information on the education and training required to work in this field.

Service Area:

Family & Consumer Sciences

Health Sciences

Audience:

Students

State Standards Covered:

Family & Consumer Sciences:

- 2.3.3 Analyze community resources and systems of formal and informal support available to individuals and families
- 10.3.6 Analyze situations which require crisis intervention.

For Educators & Students:

Pre-Event Questions to Consider

- What is the role of a substance abuse counsellor?
- What challenges does a substance abuse counsellor encounter?
- Why would an individual pursue this type of work?

Post-Event Questions to Consider

- What are the various types of treatments available?
- What are the different career opportunities available?
- What are the duties of a substance abuse counselor?
- What type of education/training is available?