

Changing Reality: A Virtual Approach

Escape into the growing business of virtual and augmented reality to understand how technology is improving the way we interact with knowledge.

Event Date & Time:

Thursday, November 4th, 2021

10:00 AM - 10:45 AM

Event Components:

This live event features industry professionals with a focus on virtual and augmented reality. Topics include the educational background and skills required to excel in this field, as well as examples of current and upcoming technology.

Service Area:

Applied Sciences

Audience:

Iowa Students

State Standards Covered:

Applied Sciences:

- 5.2 Demonstrate the ability to design an application.

For Educators & Students

Pre-Event Questions to Consider

- What skills or characteristics are needed to be in this field?
- What is virtual reality?
- What is an example of virtual reality, where do you see it?
- Is there a need for virtual & augmented reality?

Post-Event Questions to Consider

- What type of education do you need to be in this field?
- What are the main duties of a person who works in this role?
- What is the difference between augmented and virtual reality?
- What are the benefits to this type of technology?