

Bringing Broadband to You

Explore careers in this high paying, expanding environment.

Event Components:

This prerecorded event takes a look into careers in the broadband service industry. Discover the educational and training requirements to land the job, as well as learn about a day in the field.

Service Area:

Information Technology

Audience:

Iowa Students

State Standards Covered:

IT 1.5.1 Discuss the pace of change in technology and how it affects business.

For Educators & Students:

Pre-Event Questions to Consider

- How has broadband increased the efficiency in providing reliable internet services?
- What type of training is required to work in this industry?
- How is it different from ICN?
- What does a typical day look like?
- What does it take to get broadband in both metro and rural areas?
- What is the cost to consumers?

Post-Event Questions to Consider

- What is broadband?
- What are the benefits of broadband?
- How do you foresee broadband changing your lifestyle or ability to work?
- What do you think will be the next advancement in technology?

